

Tom Dooley

Denver Guitar Orchestra
<https://denverguitarorchestra.com>

November 5, 2019
 Land (1860s)
 Arranged for Guitar
 by Gary Jugert

Repeats:

- 1 thru 8
- 1 thru 8
- 1 to end

Melody

$\text{♩} = 120$

D D D A7

Hang down your head Tom Doo - ley. Hang down your head and cry.
 Met her u - pon the moun - tain, and there you took her life.
 Reck - on this time to - mor - row reck - on just where you'll be.

Guitar

T
A
B

TuffAxe

T
A
B

Guitar

T
A
B

M

A7 A7 A7 D D

5 6 7 8 9

Hang down your head Tom Doo - ley. Poor boy you're bound to die.
 Met her u - pon the moun - tain, and stabbed her with a knife.
 Down in' some lone - some val - ley hang - in' from a white oak tree.

Gtr.

Tuff

Gtr.

Lessons: Four-finger anchoring in fingerstyle guitar. Key of A and root note techniques with thumb.

Composer's Corner: So the composer decided to write about the murderer instead of the victim. What?! How about you fix this song, research the history of this crime, and rewrite the song from a less ridiculous point of view. How about celebrating the life of Laura Foster?